Library Report.

Feb. 15, 1905.

I am glad to be able to report a growing interest in our Library. There has been quite an increase in its active membership, and more books have been taken out this year than previously. Among the new books added this year are the following: The Crossing, Graustark, Beverly of Graustark, A Ladder of Swords, The Masquerader, Last Hopes, Man on the Box, In the Bishop's Carriage, Sir Mortimer, Sherrod's History of Carnagie Steel Works, and others.

Who hath a book
Hath friends at hand;
And goldand gear
At his command;
And rich estate,
If he but look,
Is held by him
Who hath a book.

Who hath a book
May fight or sing,
Or ride or rule,
Or —— anything!
Or he may dwell
In humble hut,
Or palace ere
The book be shut.

Who hath a book
Hath goodly fare,
And happiness
Beyond compare.
Or he may bow
Neath sorrow's weight,
If but the book
Such things relate.

Who hath a book
Hath but to read,
And he may be
A king, indeed.
His kingdom is
His Inglenook—
All this is his
Who hath a book.

Who hath a book
Should thank the Lord
Because he may
A book afford.
And in his prayer
This clause is due;
"Lord, bless the men
Who write books, too."

W. O. Nesbit.
